

1993

Topic: Origin, History, Power
Director: Charles E. Scott

Courses

| | |
|-------------------|--|
| Rudolf Bernet | The Power of Origin versus the Power of History |
| David Wood | Derrida: Origins, Promises, Responsibilities |
| Rudi Visker | “Before” the History of Power: Introducing Foucault to Phenomenology |
| Robert Bernasconi | Heidegger and the History of the Greek Origins of Philosophy |

Lectures

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| Tom Nenon | Interests, Tendencies, Habitualities: Husserl on the Prepredicative Origins of Knowledge and Action |
| John Sallis | The Question of Origin |
| Michael Naas | Receiving the Tradition |
| Michael Newman | Derrida’s Memoires d’aveugle |
| Guido Berns | On Money |
| Beatrice Han | Foucault’s History of the West: From the “Techniques of Truth” to the “Technologies of Truth” |
| Charles Shepherdson | History and the Real: History, Theory, and Fiction |
| Ladelle McWhorter | Happy Limbo: Origin and Power in Herculine Barbin |
| Will McNeill | Foucault and Heidegger: Discourse and Power |
| Fabio Ciaramelli | The Loss of Origin and the Question of Unheimlichkeit |
| Paul van Tongeren | Nietzsche’s Transfiguration of History |
| Ben Vedder | Dilthey’s Concept of Historicity and Its Influence in Being and Time |
| Jacob Rogozinski | Deconstructing the Law: Originary Ethics and the History of Being |

Text Seminar Leaders

Thomas Baumeister, Tom Nenon, Ashraf Noor, Dennis Schmidt, Walter Brogan, Michael Clifford, Simon Critchley, Paul Davies, Paola Marrati, Bernard Flynn, David Gruber, Michael Karskens, Charles Scott, Jim Faulconer, William Franke, Susan Schoenbohm