

COLLEGIUM PHAENOMENOLOGICUM

Città di Castello, Umbria, Italy

July 14 — August 1, 2008

The Collegium Phaenomenologicum will convene for its thirty-third annual session in the Umbrian town of Città di Castello. The Collegium is intended for faculty members and advanced graduate and postdoctoral students in philosophy and related disciplines. The core of the program consists in a series of lecture courses, individual lectures, and intensive text-based seminars. A Participants Conference will be held July 12-13, 2008. The theme for 2008 will be:

Belief after Reason: Hegel, Heidegger, Derrida

What becomes of belief after its critical accommodation in Kant's account of reason? The courses, lectures, and seminars of the Collegium will explore some of the ways in which Glauben (belief, faith) continues to haunt post-Kantian European philosophy. They will examine its returns, translations, and implications. They will consider its seeming capacity to frustrate or avoid diagnosis. In addition to the course readings, texts by Kant, Schelling, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, and Deleuze may also be discussed.

Courses

Robert Bernasconi (University of Memphis), 'Infinities: Hegel's "Faith and Knowledge"'

Daniel Dahlstrom (Boston University), 'Heidegger after Augustine'

Michael Naas (De Paul University), 'Religion, Technology, and Originary Faith in Derrida'

Participants will be comfortably housed at Hotel Le Mura () in the historic centre of Città di Castello. The cost for room and board (full pension) will be approximately 40 Euros (double occupancy) and 50 Euros (single room) per day. The program fee for the three-week session will be 275 Euros. The deadline for applications is February 25, 2008. For more information, please contact:
